

2BU Studios – Star Author Book Publishing Party

Star Author Book Publishing Party (2nd-5th grade): This party is specially designed for your young author that loves story books and loves to write. The star author book publishing party experience allows your artist and his/her friends to create their own short story books or scripts. First they will learn some of the basics related to creative writing and character development. Then they will use what they learn to create their own characters and storylines as they develop their own stories and writings. Every party author will take home their own book which will serve as a memory of their book publishing experience.
